How to highlight parts of the texts

- This slide shows you how to highlight some parts of the text with colors,
- with bold text,
- or text in italics.

- This slide shows you how to add references...
- ... to quotes: (Collier and Hoeffler, 2004, 565)
- ... or as an indirect reference: Fearon and Laitin (2003)

This is a simple linear regression model:

$$y_i = \alpha + \beta x_i + \varepsilon_i$$

The Metropolis theme allows several blocks that might come handy when highlighting something:

Default block

The first block is the default block.

Alert block

The second block is the alert block.

Example block

The third block is the example block.

How to add blocks II

You may also fill the blocks:

Appendix

The first Appendix slide

- This is a normal bullet point list that might be added to the Appendix with alternative backup information.
- Note, the Appendix is not numerated and the slides do not count into the normal slide counter.
